Stonewall Resort Employees Help Clean Up Area Roadway

Weston, W. Va. (August 2008) – More than 20 Stonewall Resort managers and employees took to the highway on July 17 and August 18 to help clean up the stretch of roadway between Interstate 79 and the resort as part of the organization’s Adopt-A-Highway initiative, resort representatives announced.

“This is such a beautiful area and as a company we want to do our part to help keep it clean,” said Judith Alfred, Human Resources Director for Stonewall Resort and head of the resort’s Culture Committee – the group that spearheaded the event internally. “Our employees jumped at the opportunity to help and we had a great time doing it.”

Resort employees from many different departments participated, including the golf and grounds maintenance departments which provided carts to pick up filled bags and distribute water. The resort served a light breakfast before the event and a cook-out lunch afterwards.
